Mrs. Santa From Krum Hosts Children's Party Denton Record Chronicle December 21, 1963

Krum, Texas---Hattie Dyer is Mrs. Santa Claus to the kids of Krum.

The 60 year old school teacher held her 25th annual Christmas party for the community's children Friday, using money she has earned selling eggs each week-end in Dallas.

"I love children. I like doing things for them," she said explaining the party. She teaches the first and second grades at Krum Elementary School.

The party just keeps getting bigger and bigger, Mrs. Dyer notes. Some 100 children gathered around a big East Texas tree to exchange gifts, collect fruit and goodies and sing carols at this year's affair.

Mrs. Dyer also holds an annual Easter egg hunt for the children, and she collects and distributes gifts and candy to children at the Denton State School.

Mrs. Dyer makes the 40 mile trip to Dallas each Saturday to sell 300 dozen eggs to finance her humanitarian instincts. "I have regular customers all out in North Dallas," she smiles.

She has watched Dallas grow into a big city selling these eggs the past 30 years," she observed.

Little Krum points with pride at its Mrs. Santa with a master's degree.
